DR. FREDERICH ADLER'S FREE

Assassin of Austrian Premier, Stuerghk, Released From Prison.

Amsterdam, Holland, Nov. 4.—Dr. Friedrich Adler, who assassinated Austrian premier Stuerghk on October 21, 1918, has been released from prison, according to Vienna dispatches.

Dr. Friedrich Adler is a son of Dr. Victor Adler, the leader of the Austrian Socialists, and was editor of the newspaper Der Kampf, which he assassinated Stuerghk. Young Adler declared the assassination was purely political and was due to the failure of the premier to convene the Austrian parliament. German newspapers declared that Adler was insane, but a court verdict found him mentally sound when he was brought up for trial in December, 1918. Adler was sentenced to death and efforts to secure a commutation failed until September, 1917, when the death sentence was commuted to 15 years imprisonment by emperor Charles.

DEMAND KAISER ABDICATE STILL IS PERSISTENT

His Democratic Promises Fail To Satisfy The German Socialists.

London, Eng., Nov. 4.—The German Socialists are not satisfied with the emperor's proclamation issued Sunday, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen. The Vorwaerts says:

"The manifesto will not in any way change the standpoint of the Socialists nor weaken the demand for abdication."

Endorse Reichstag Plans.

Amsterdam, Holland, Nov. 4.—(By the Associated Press.)—On the occasion of the constitutional amendment coming into force, says an official telegram from Berlin, emperor Wilhelm addressed to prince Maximilian of Baden, the German imperial chancellor, a decree, endorsing the decision of the Reichstag and avowing his firm determination to cooperate in its full development. The emperor's decree reads:

"Your grand dual highness: I return herewith for immediate publication the bill to amend the imperial constitution and the law of March 17, 1919, relative to the representation of the imperial chancellor, which has been laid before me for signature."

"On the occasion of this step which is so momentous for the future of the German people, I have a desire to give expression to my feelings. Prepared for a series of important acts, a new order comes into force which transfers the fundamental rights of the Kaiser to the people."

"Great Victory For People."

"This decree is a close period, which will stand in honor before the eyes of future generations. Despite all struggles between invested authority and aspiring forces, it has rendered possible to our people that tremendous development which imperiously revealed itself in the wonderful achievements of this war."

"In the terrible storm of the four years of war, however, old forms have been broken up, not to leave their ruins behind, but to make a place for a new vital form."

"After the achievements of these
